Flagstaff County is now offering one-on-one business strategy sessions with business coach Amanda Wagner, to small businesses in the Flagstaff Region.

After seeing some incredible changes in our Flagstaff Crafted businesses following their strategy sessions with Amanda, Flagstaff County sees great value in continuing to offer these sessions not only to Flagstaff Crafted makers, but also to small businesses in the Flagstaff Region as well. These sessions with Amanda will be focused on supporting small businesses to increase their growth and reach their goals.

Together with business strategist Amanda Wagner, businesses will build their presence in the community (and beyond!). All of these things require focus, planning, and intentional work by participants.

As a business strategist, Amanda will provide support and resources for any challenges or opportunities, which may include some of the following topics:

- Defining the type of experience businesses want to create for customers and retail partners.
- Managing time and creating boundaries.
- Helping with strategic direction and focusing operations.
- Creating a value-driven business that serves your life.
- Sharing your brand story as part of your sales strategy.
- Branding, pricing, and strategic planning.

Each 1 hour session is valued at $250 and available to you for only $40 + GST.
