The Wait is Over! The 2022 Flagstaff Crafted Spring/Summer Collection is here!

Now available online at flagstaffcrafted.ca is Flagstaff County's 4th edition of their bi-annual gift guide celebrating and showcasing Flagstaff Crafted small businesses and the products and services they offer. Each issue offers the very best local shopping experience. As you scroll through the Spring/Summer collection you will be in awe of our local talent – Flagstaff Crafted MVPs, who have worked hard at building purposeful businesses they are passionate about.

We continue to grow our Flagstaff Crafted family and most recently expanded our program to include not only makers, but food producers and service providers as well. What does this mean for you, our supportive communities and shoppers? It means you will have VIP access to an online hub filled with diverse and local Flagstaff Crafted businesses. These businesses work hard at offering the very best products and services right here in rural Alberta – the Flagstaff Region. We strongly believe that when you create a program that supports small business by offering guidance, resources, and opportunities, you give them a path that leads the way to reaching their wildest business dreams. Thank you for continually supporting our local Flagstaff Crafted business.
